

Please end your reign of terror against our people. Please look into your hearts and find out what is worth fighting for. You and your contributors seek to limit the freedom of everyone, and to make money and consolidate power. Your homogenous society is not for us, and I MUST dissent. I will give my life before giving your associations free reign over the airwaves, and thus information. Consider this. Join us or die.